

"Balancing delicate fruit and subtle spice with savoury texture and mouthwatering acidity, the 2024 Tarot Grenache came from an interesting vintage. A wet summer followed by a dry autumn meant the grapes went thirsty as they got riper. The result is some lovely intense flavours yet, with a light feel, a lovely medium-bodied beauty with plenty of complexing characters of berries and spice. Poor-mans-Pinot eat your heart out."

~ Sam Berketa, Head Winemaker

Grenache	South Australia

Nose

Raspberry, strawberry, dried herbs and a peppery spice.

Palate

Delicate and soft on the palate, there's a gentle structure that frames the juicy fruit laden pallet. A hint of savoury dried herbs and spice compliment the plump berry flavours and a moreish acidity.
